INFANTILE PARALYSIS IN NEW YORK.

Greater New York is alarmed over the spread of infantile paralysis. During 24 hours preceding this morning, 24 children of the metropolis died of the disease.

This disease was epidemic seven years ago and spread to all parts of the country. It is a germ affliction and, so far, the doctors have failed to cope with it.

Rigid enforcement of quarantine as a preventive measure, the conserving of the vitality of the child and general regard for sanitary environment are safeguards.

MARRIED SOLDIERS CAN BE RELEASED.

Applications for discharge by National guardsmen who have dependent relatives will be granted, according to the war department.

The order is a good one. There is no good reason why young men who are married, or are single with dependent relatives, should be called to serve on the border, while there are so many men available who are free from all encumbrances.

Should the Mexican trouble grow serious, demanding half a million or more troops, the order might have to be nullified, but in the present stage of waiting the release of soldiers with dependents is the proper thing to do.

GOVERNMENT HAS A DUTY TO PERFORM.

Our soldier boys, in being sworn in, are obligated to the government. The Santa Cruz News says there should be two oaths—one for the men and the other for the government. Here is the oath suggested for the government:

"To all and each of you whose names are entered on this roll, having been duly accepted in the United States Army as commissioned officers or enlisted men of the militia, the United States government, through its constituted authorities, does hereby solemnly promise you that it will equip you properly to discharge the terms of your allegiance to these United States of America as far as it is possible with the aid of modern weapons of warfare, protect you from annihilation by any enemy whatsoever; and that it will watch out for your health in camp and otherwise keep you fit to obey the orders of the President of the United States and the orders of the officers appointed over you according to the rules and articles of war. So help us God."

The oath might include an obligation on the part of the government to care for the dependents of all soldiers killed or wounded in action.

OBTAINING NATURALIZATION PAPERS.

The Standard has been requested to give the law as to naturalization, defining the length of residence in this country necessary to the acquiring of the rights of citizenship by a foreigner.

Not less than two years after an alien has filed his declaration of intention, and after not less than five years' continuous residence in the United States, a foreigner may file a petition in any of the United States district courts, or district courts in the states or territories within the jurisdiction of which the alien resides.

Before filing a declaration of intention, the applicant must have resided one year continuously in the state in which he presents his petition. The petition must be in the petitioner's own handwriting. The petition must set forth that he is not a disbeliever in or opposed to, organized government; that he is not a polygamist or a believer in the practice of polygamy.

The petitioner must be vouched for by two credible witnesses that he has acted as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution.

No petition may be heard within thirty days preceding a general election.

The alien must speak the English language.

The naturalization of Chinamen is expressly prohibited.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE U. P.

When the Union Pacific railroad officials decided that, because Ogden is centrally located in relation to the Union Pacific system, the headquarters of the dining car and hotel department should be moved to this point, they inspired the thought that Ogden eventually, owing to its natural advantages, will be a more important railroad center than it is today, and that is saying much.

The Union Pacific has at the head of its dining car and hotel department one of the hardest working officials any road in this country possesses. F. E. Lewis is not only a tireless worker, but he is recognized as an executive of remarkable ability, whose foresight and power of organization are not excelled. His return to Ogden is a source of gratification. He is one of the big men of the Union Pacific system whose contact with the public commands respect and redounds to the company's advantage.

STATE POLITICS IN UTAH.

In the early part of August the State Republican convention will meet in Ogden. This gathering of the clans promises to be far more exciting than at any time in the past.

There was, at one time, a "federal bunch" at the head of the party in Utah, and the "bunch," so we are informed, ruled with an iron hand. Every office within reach was peddled for political service and state funds were employed to promote private enterprise. The man with a political pull had the power to subvert good government and the ringmaster won high favor. But the "bunch" has suffered internal discord and a division has resulted, so that today the Herald-Republican on the one side and the Tribune on the other are explaining to the public the iniquities with which the people have been afflicted.

Reading the two sides, the public must be forced to the conclusion that there is something rotten in Denmark.

Here is the Tribune's comment of this morning:

"With due solemnity the Herald-Republican calls upon everybody to take the oath and be mustered into the federal bunch before daring to say a word on Republican politics. That great, liberal newspaper which never has displayed prejudice or bias on any subject, which always has supported good government by supporting federal bunch candidates, desires, The Tribune to take the oath of allegiance to the bunch before voting an opinion on the state's governmental affairs. We are aware that we have stated the proposition in a way to cause the Herald-Republican and the federal bunch some mental anguish. They are eager to mask their designs behind the screen of party loyalty, but the fact remains that they demand a federal bunch candidate and are apologetically angry at Governor Spry because he has refused to 'crook the pregnant hinges of the knee' at their dictation. They want a gang candidate and no soft editorial words can deceive the public as to their purpose. And for that reason they would have all except members of the federal bunch maintain silence about the important question of the governorship."

The most important point in the foregoing is not that the gang is attempting to discipline Governor Spry. The information that Utah has been ruled by a gang is the impressive thing.

The Tribune conveys the idea that already the voters of Utah have manifested a preference in this quarrel of the federal bunch. Our opinion is that the people are yet to be heard from. True many good men and men of high standing in this and other communities in Utah have declared themselves. A number have acted through personal consideration, others are avowedly for the wet side, all we take it, are laboring for what they deem to be right, but they make up a very small fraction of the electorate of this state.

The Tribune and Herald-Republican in their bitter fight, are tending to convince the great body of the people that Utah, in the past, has been sinning against and is very much in need of a political house cleaning.

MUCH DISGUST IS EXPRESSED.

What the Progressives of California think of Theodore Roosevelt's surrender at Chicago is expressed in the following from the Sacramento Bee: "Those who are so eager to find excuses for the act of Theodore Roosevelt at Chicago in murdering his own child should read these words from his New York speech to Progressives, delivered on October 3, 1913:

"This movement will never go back, and whatever may betide in the future, of one thing the disciples of an easy opportunism may rest assured—I will never abandon the principles to which

WORLD'S MARKETS

New York, July 6.—Stocks made further response to today's active opening to the more favorable domestic and international conditions. Ralls were the chief feature. Reading soon advancing over two points on free accumulation, with a fair inquiry for Canadian Pacific, Union Pacific, Lehigh Valley, New Haven and Rock Island. Among the specialties Mexican Petroleum, Crucible Steel, Baldwin Locomotive, Continental Can, Industrial Alcohol and Willys-Overland were better by one to two points. Sugars and shipping issues also recorded material gains and United States Steel was firm at a fraction over its recent best.

Reading continued to lead the list during the forenoon with an extreme gain of 3 points. Canadian Pacific and subsidiaries were stronger. Sugars made further upward progress with new high records for American Beet and Cuban Cane. Mexicans yielded fractions of their early gains and munitions also shaded. Coppers were inactive and zinc shares reflected further liquidation. Bonds were steady.

Omaha Livestock.
Omaha, Neb., July 6.—Hogs—Receipts 13,300; market higher. Heavy $9.80@9.85; light, $9.40@9.70; pigs, $8.00@9.00; bulk of sales, $9.55@9.70.
Cattle—Receipts 3300; market steady. Native steers, $7.55@10.50; cows and heifers, $6.25@8.50; western steers, $7.25@8.00; Texas steers, $7.00@8.00; stockers and feeders, $6.25@8.25.
Sheep—Receipts 8900; market steady. Yearlings, $6.75@8.00; wethers, $6.50@7.50; lambs, $9.55@10.55.

Sugar.
New York, July 6.—Raw sugar, firm; centrifugal, 6.40c; molasses, 5.52c; refined, steady, fine granulated, 5.5c.
Sugar futures at noon were 7 to 8 points higher.

Chicago Grain

Chicago, July 6.—Excellent harvest weather for the winter crop and of a kind to force growth in the spring crop region tended today to ease the wheat market. Lower cable quotations counted also against the bulls. Opening prices, which ranged from 1-4 to 1-4 up with July at $1.03 1-4 to 1.03 1-2, and September at $1.05 3-8 to 1.05 5-8, were followed by a slight rally and then a moderate general setback.

Corn like wheat inclined downward owing to the good weather. Pit specialties took the selling side. After opening 1-3@1-4c lower to a shade advance, prices scored some gains but soon underwent a sag all around.
Oats were governed mainly by the action of other grain. Trading was light and changes in quotations narrow.
Higher prices on hogs failed to lift provisions. A demand for lard was offset by liberal selling of pork and ribs.
Reports that one-third of the wheat crop in Kansas had already been harvested led to further weakness. The close, however, was unsettled at $1.03 1-8 July and at $1.05 3-4, 1-4 to 1-2c off compared with yesterday's finish. Good export inquiry helped later to give the corn market strength. The close was strong at 1-4 to 5-8c net advance.

UTAH STOCKS

Summary of the Local Market.
July 6, 1916.—Alta Con. was the most active stock traded in this morning on the local mining exchange opening up at 39 cents and selling down to 36 cents. MEN FROM ULSTER DO GREAT WORK Divisions in One of Most Terrible Parts of Anglo-French Offensive Prove Heroes.

SHOUT "NO SURRENDER" Advance Under Cross Fire of Every Kind and Hold Until Last Cartridge Is Fired.

Press Camp, British Army in France, July 5.—The story of the Ulster divisions in the first day's battle of the Anglo-French offensive, is now accessible. It had one of the most terrible parts of the difficult attack in the northern section of the offensive. Its trenches were disadvantageously located on ground facing a ridge where the German batteries had an enfilading fire. Through curtains of shrapnel fire, in the face of machine guns and under inflaming fire from machine guns in a village the division captured the first German line shouting "no surrender" and "remember the Boyne" and started for the second line.

Stick to the Last. Still under cross fire and every kind of shell fire the troops of the Ulster division continued on until they gained a strong redoubt on the summit of the ridge. There those who had survived dug in. Against German counter attacks and machine gun and rifle fire from two sides they held on until they had no more bombs or cartridges. Hopelessly shut off from further supplies by German curtains of shell fire they had to fall back, bringing two hundred prisoners to the German first line of trenches, passing through curtains of fire to do so. Here they established themselves and stuck until help came.
An English battalion from Yorkshire and Lancashire, caught in the same fashion, so far as known, fought almost to the last man in holding the Germans north of the Ancre while battalions further south made uniform progress.

Gallantry Unsuspected. All reports of prisoners agree that the Germans expected the real center attack would be north of the Ancre. Regular army officers say that nothing in the annals of the guards, or of any other regular regiments in the battle of Ypres, or in the history of the British army surpasses the gallantry of these Kitchener battalions which kept pressing on towards the objective set for them when half their numbers were down.
